

Bunbury Music Festival Now Accepting Vendor Applications

Array of options expose businesses to 20,000 attendees daily

Cincinnati (January 16, 2013) – Bunbury Music Festival returns to Cincinnati's Sawyer Point and Yeatman's Cove on July 12-14, 2013, and is now accepting applications for advocacy groups, food, mobile food, merchandise, craft and business (sales or recruitment) vendors. The festival offers a vast array of options including tents, booth space and more.

"We are recruiting and searching for the most respected and admired vendors the city and region has to offer. This is a chance for vendors to put their product, service or message in front of 15,000 to 20,000 people each day," said Bill Donabedian, Bunbury organizer.

The three-day event transforms the banks of the Ohio River into a unique music and festival experience with participating vendors receiving additional promotion through the Bunbury website and other promotional activities.

Applications and more information are available at www.bunburyfestival.com/participate/vendors.
The deadline to apply is Friday, April 26, 2013, at 5 p.m. EST.

Festival Dates and Times

Friday & Saturday, July 12 & 13: 2 p.m. - midnight

Sunday, July 14: 2 - 11 p.m.

About Bunbury Music Festival: Bunbury Music Festival is an alternative music festival that will feature 80 live performances on six stages throughout Sawyer Point and Yeatman's Cove from July 12-14, 2013. The name of the event comes from an Oscar Wilde play, "The Importance of Being Earnest" and means "to have a made up excuse to get out of doing something boring."
